A NARROW ESCAPE.

Word has been received in this city that Mr. George Willis Burrill, the son of Mr. Chas. H. Burrill, secretary and dean of the Globe Publishing Company, was in a wreck on the Long Island Railway last week.

The train turned turtle and most of those upon it had to be pulled out. Remarkable to relate though, not a person upon the wrecked train was killed. When rescued from the train, Mr. Burrill was asked if he wanted to go to a hospital. Though considerably shaken up and suffering from minor injuries, he replied, "No, I want to go home." It is thought that young Mr. Burrill is able at this writing to follow his regular avocation.

MURFREESBORO NOTES.

The students of Bradley Academy celebrated Abraham Lincoln's birth Tuesday, February 12. A very appropriate program was rendered. There were two representatives from each grade. Those on program were Misses Josie and Bertha Blackman, Anna Anderson, Allean Boles, Henrietta Williams, Bessie Works and Lorell Brown, eighth grade; Miss Maggie Eules and Mr. Samuel Avent, seventh; Mr. Arthur Butler and Miss Idella Hatton, fifth; Masters Irving Garner, Walter James, fourth; A. D. Hogg, third; Tennie Everett and Eugene Childress, second; Mattie Alexander and Walter Jordan, first grade. Afterward Dr. G. C. Harden, Rev. B. F. Anderson and Bradford made short speeches.

The Ladies' Embroidery Club was highly entertained at the home of Mrs. Walter Pages. After business a very tempting menu was served: Beaten biscuit, creamed oysters, chicken salad, pickles, grape fruit, gelatine and cake. Those present: Mesdames J. B. Sublett, Mamie Vaughn, G. B. Brady, J. B. McClellan, R. B. Meeks, Horace Mitchell, Preston Scales, Misses Etna Howland, Matilda Green, Maggie Nelson, Lillie M. Lillard, Nannie M. Ransom, Johnnie O'Neal and Elma A. Williams.

The Ladies' Embroidery Club was highly entertained by Miss Nannie Ransom. A very interesting piece was read by Mrs. G. B. Brady, "Honest Labor Not Degrading," after which a tempting menu was served: Escaloped oysters on lettuce, ham, beaten biscuit, pickle, apricot ice and egg kisses. Those present were Mesdames J. B. Sublett, G. B. Brady, H. P. Scales, Mamie Vaughn, George Ransom, J. B. McClellan, Walter Page, Misses Etna Howland, Beulah Miller, Matilda Green, Lillie M. Lillard and Elma A. Williams.

Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Taylor were in the city last Friday attending Mr. Henderson Hall's funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Keeble was held Tuesday at Primitive Baptist Church. She leaves three daughters and one son.

Mrs. Tennie Williams, Mrs. Rebecca Sparrow are on the sick list.

Rev. B. F. Anderson has an attack of rheumatism.

GOODLETTSVILLE NOTES.

Rev. R. C. McLendon preached very instructively last Sunday morning on "The Ten Virgins."

Mr. J. M. Payne was called to Nashville last week on the account of the death of his father.

Mrs. Litha Grizzard, who was ill last week, is well again, and has been visiting friends in Nashville this week.

Miss Laura Cantrell will renew her subscription for the Globe.

The many victims of la grippe are all rapidly being restored to health again.

Rev. R. C. McLendon visited Fisk University this week.

Mrs. Martha Hendricks, one of the original members and staunch supporters of the Congregational Church here has been wholly restored to health again and will now resume active service in her church.

THE STANDARD GIANTS BASE BALL CLUB ROYALLY ENTERTAINED.

The Standard Giants were royally entertained by a banquet given by their manager, Mr. White, at his residence on Fifth avenue, South, Tuesday evening. Music was furnished by one of the best orchestras of Nashville, which rendered some of the rarest selections ever heard. Mr. John Hurt acted as toastmaster and the manner in which the popular second baseman dished them out made a lasting impression and every member and guest responded loyally.

After courses of eatables, wines and ices, which were very, very elaborate, Manager White called the house to order and Mr. C. B. Reeves was made President; Mr. J. W. White, Manager, and W. G. Sublett, Secretary, and by unanimous voice of the house Mr. Howard Petway, who did stunts for one of the professional teams of Chicago last season, was elected captain. As to his ability his work with Chicago was commented upon by several of the Northern papers.

One of Nashville's colored tailors was on hand and took the measure of each member for a new uniform and coats, which will add greatly to the appearance of the team. The managers promise to put forth one of the strongest teams that has ever faced our diamond and will spare no pains to do so.

The Standards will travel extensively, having arranged games with Memphis, Hot Springs, Little Rock, and during the month of July will make a trip south as far as Texas, playing all the leading teams, Chattanooga, Atlanta, Birmingham, Macon, New Orleans and Beaumont, Texas, and will give our patrons an opportunity of seeing the same. The team is exceptionally strong in every department. Infield and outfield, and the pitching staff cannot be surpassed by any other team in the South. One peculiarity is that every member claims Nashville as his home. It is composed exclusively of home talent, a characteristic no other team can boast of, and it is certain that every member will put up a big fight for the glory of his home. After having spent a remarkably pleasant evening the members and their friends retired.

NON-RESIDENT NOTICE.

May Rules, 1907.

Isabella Caster vs. Henry Caster. In this cause it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Tennessee, therefore the ordinary process of law can not be served upon him; it is therefore ordered that said defendant enter his appearance herein at the next term of the Davidson County Circuit Court, to be holden at the Court House in Nashville, Tennessee, on the first Monday in May, it being 6th, and defend, or said complainant's bill will be taken for confessed as to him and set for hearing ex parte. It is therefore ordered that a copy of this order be published for four weeks in succession in the Nashville Globe, a newspaper published in Nashville.
